GENERAL INFORMATION

Internet:

This section is offered via the Internet. There are no on-campus meetings. All assignments, including all exams, will be conducted online. You must use a computer with a high speed Internet connection (e.g., DSL or cable).

This course is a user-friendly, step-by-step learning endeavor. Taking an on-line course requires motivation and commitment. You must keep up with the assignments. You will participate in this class through your on-time completion of the assignments. This is a three-unit course, requiring approximately five hours of your time per week – usually a minimum of three hours and no more than eight hours. Each week is a “module.” If you ever have any questions or difficulties, the instructor is readily available via Email, telephone, and on-campus office. Email responses are normally returned within 12 hours (seven days a week). Please resend if you do not receive a response within 24 hours, and leave a voicemail. Be sure to read this entire syllabus, including “Technical Competencies” below (page 9).

Catalog Course Description:

The Religion of Islam, its background and main teachings: the rise of Islam; the caliphate; Islamic theology, teachings, mysticism and philosophy.

Syllabus Course Description:

As one of the world’s great religions, Islam is considered to be the second largest monotheistic religion and with a rapid growth next to none. For a period of over 1400 years, it expanded from a few hundred adherents in the Arabian Peninsula to all corners of the world. Despite the apparent visibility it enjoys, Islam remains largely unknown to most people in terms of the details of its origin and the contents of its beliefs and practices. This is more so in the Western world. Yet, championed by academic institutions, there have been genuine efforts on the parts of the citizens of the world to seek proper understanding about Islam. This course introduces Islam from a scholarly perspective; examining the origins, beliefs and rituals of Islam as found in Islamic sources, but presented with some Western perspectives. The course also examines the emergence of Islam’s theological, legal, political, mystical and sectarian institutions. Some challenges facing contemporary Muslims are also highlighted.

General Education:

This course fulfills GE C.2 Introduction to the Humanities. (If you wish to pursue a minor in Religious Studies or a minor in Islamic Studies, you can “double count” this course for GE and the minor—up to nine units of GE courses from one department may be used to meet minor requirements. If you are a major in Religious Studies, this class fulfills your lower division introduction to western religious traditions, but cannot count for GE.)

ASSESSMENT OF LEARNING

Grade Points:

NO extra credit. A total of 1000 points will be available for assessment based upon the following:

20 points—Email Reflections: 5 reflections; 4 point each; each 0.4% of total grade.

150 points—Workbook; 10 points/15 modules; each 1% of total grade.

70 points—Postings & Etc: 4 posts +3 responses (10 points each; ea 1% of total grade).

260 points—Review Quiz: 13 quizzes; 20 points each quiz; each 2% of total grade.

150 points—Two Book Reviews (three-five pages); 60 points review 1; 90 points review 2; total 15% of grade.

150 points—Midterm Exam; 15% of total grade.

200 points—Final Exam; 20% of total grade.

Grading Scale:

Plus-minus +/- will be used. Final grades will be calculated on the following basis:

A+	97.0-100%	970-1000 points	C+	77.0-79.9%	770-799 points
A	94.0-96.9%	940-969 points	C	74.0-76.9%	740-769 points
A-	90.0-93.9%	900-939 points	C-	70.0-73.9%	700-739 points
B+	87.0-89.9%	870-899 points	D+	67.0-69.9%	670-699 points
B	84.0-86.9%	840-869 points	D	60.0-66.9%	600-669 points (no D-)
B-	80.0-83.9%	800-839 points	F	0-59.9%	0-599 points

The grading scale is firm. “Faculty members are expected to maintain high standards regarding student achievement” (University Policy Statement 210.000, IV, C, 1, c). A grade of “C” is the “average” grade which describes what most students can reasonably accomplish. Average work includes completing all assignments and learning the class material. A grade of “B” means “above average” and requires achievement beyond normal expectations. A grade of “A” is reserved for “outstanding” work which is the mark of true excellence; such work exhibits profound comprehension of the material and creative insights. There is no extra credit.

Learning Goals:

General Education Learning Goals applied to this Course:

Learning Goals for GE C.2 (previously GE IIIB2) Introduction to the Humanities (UPS 411.201)

- Cultivate their intellectual reasoning skills, expand their capacity for creative imagination, develop their reasonable moral sensibilities, and increase their capacity for sensitive engagement through studying great works of human imagination and reason (which are to be primarily—although not exclusively—written texts and literature).
- Understand how the humanities have contributed to the development of culture, including the comparative study of the humanities in diverse cultures.
- Understand how the humanities have sought to provide answers to complex problems facing humanity, including the relationship of the self to culture and the natural world, the nature of moral and legal obligations, and the meaning and purpose of human existence.

Department of Comparative Religion Learning Goals & Outcomes applied to this Course:

- Learning Goal: Students possess the ability to perform research and interpret materials related to the study of religion.
 - Outcome 1: Students can analyze written materials related to the study of religion.
 - Outcome 2: Students have acquired information literacy in the study of religion.

- Learning Goal: Students can effectively communicate in written and spoken mediums.
 - Outcome 3: Students are able to write well-organized critical and analytical research papers related to the study of religion.
 - Outcome 4: not applied to this course.

- Learning Goal: Students can demonstrate an understanding of the beliefs, rituals, texts, and figures related to a variety of religious traditions.
 - Outcome 5: Students can describe the basic teachings and practices of major religious traditions and can compare and contrast the principal similarities and differences between them.
 - Outcome 6: Students are able to identify the history and development of specific religions and their contemporary relevance.
 - Outcome 7: not applied to this course.
 - Outcome 8: Students can interpret key thinkers and figures within religious traditions.

Specific Learning Goals for this Course:

- facilitate an insight into the major beliefs and practices of Islamic religion.
- expose students to the theological and intellectual debate engaged in by Muslims for centuries.
- ascertain how the uses and interpretations of Islamic texts have come to, and continue to, serve the sectarian aspirations of Muslims.
- contextualize certain Islamic beliefs and practices for a clearer understanding.
- prepare students and provide them with more intellectual tools for further research about Islam and Muslims.
- highlight some of the contemporary problems facing Muslims, especially, in North America.

Participation & Assignments:

Taking an on-line course requires motivation and commitment. You must keep up with the assignments. You will participate in this class through your on-time completion of assignments. Each week is one “module.” For this course, the week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday night. Assignments are due every week on Sundays at 11:55 PM. Failure to demonstrate serious commitment to the course will result in the lowering of your overall grade. If you fail to demonstrate progress during the first week of class, you will be dropped from the course.

Workbook:

10 points/15 modules; each 1% of total grade; total 150 points.

From TITANium, download each “Workbook.” Each Workbook provides step-by-step instructions of all assignments for that specific module and questions for you to answer. You will use these pages to answer the module quiz and study for the final exam. Completing the Workbook is essential to understanding exam material. It is expected that YOU will answer questions in the Workbook based on your reading, and watching the presentations and videos. Copying from another student’s Workbook is cheating; (see “policy on academic dishonesty” below). At the end of each module you will upload your completed Workbook on TITANium. An overall grade will be assigned to your Workbook based on completion and the overall correctness of your answers. Please note that every incorrect answer will not necessarily be marked. It is your responsibility to ask for help if you cannot answer a specific question. Workbooks uploaded after a due date will be accepted for reduced credit (two points deduction if submitted on-or-before the due date of the next module; not accepted after the due date of the next module). The Workbooks for modules 7 and 15 will not be accepted late.

Table 1 Workbook Rubrics

Criteria	A+	A	A-	B+	B-	C	D	F
Completion	All questions are thoroughly answered. 5.0	All questions are answered, and most are answered thoroughly. 4.8	All questions (or all but one) are answered, and many are answered thoroughly. 4.6	All but one or two questions are answered, and many are answered thoroughly. 4.4	All but one or two questions are answered, and some are answered thoroughly. 4.0	All but three or four questions are answered, and some are answered thoroughly. 3.8	Most questions are answered, but many answers are brief. 3.4	Less than half of the questions are answered. 0
Accuracy	All answers are perfectly accurate. 5.0	All answers (or all but one) are accurate. 4.8	All answers (or all but one) are accurate, but some lack precision. 4.6	Almost all answers are accurate, but some lack precision. 4.4	Almost all answers are accurate, but many lack precision. 4.0	Most answers are accurate, but many lack precision. 3.8	Some answers are accurate, and many lack precision. 3.4	Most of the answers are incorrect. 0
Max Total	10

TITANIum Discussion Postings & Reponses:

4 Postings + 3 Responses (10 points each; each 1% of total grade); 70 points total.

You will be grouped with approximately eight other students in a TITANIum community. As assigned, you will add a post on TITANIum to the discussion question. Also, each member will add one response to another person's posting for one specific assignment. Postings and responses added after a due date will be accepted for reduced credit (two points deduction), if submitted on-or-before the due date of the next module. Your postings and responses will be graded upon the following:

Table 2 Posting Rubrics

Criteria	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Below Expectations
Focused on topic & Insightful	Clear indication that the posting is focused on the question/prompt and that the writer has developed an interpretation. 6	The posting responds to the question/prompt with limited insight. 5	Posting does not clearly relate to the question/prompt. Makes short or irrelevant remarks. 1
Organization of ideas	There is a sense in the posting that ideas lead to each other and that there are connections being made. 2	Some ideas are connected, but others appear tangential or disconnected. Needs some editing. 1.5	There is a lack of organization of ideas or insight. Posting appears hasty. 0
Grammar/mechanics	There are few (if any) spelling or grammar errors. 2	A few (to some) errors in spelling and/or grammar in posting. 1.5	Poor spelling and grammar in much of the posting. 0
Max TOTAL	10

Table 3 Response Rubrics

Criteria	Exceeds/Meets Expectations	Below Expectations
Critical thinking evident in responses	The response is not just a summary but an attempt by the respondent to push toward a particular meaning. 3	The response mostly summarizes the original posting without adding particular insight. 0-1
Correlation of response to question/prompt and/or posting	The response refers consistently to the question/prompt and/or to particular ideas from a posting that have made an impression. 3	The response is inconsistent in its focus on the question/prompt (or overall focus). 0-1
Thoughtfulness in interactions	Evidence of college level thinking and professional response. 2	Possible "gut response" without reflection and/or abrupt tone. 0-1
Grammar/mechanics	There are few (if any) spelling or grammar errors. 2	Errors in spelling and/or grammar in response. 0-1
Max Total	10

For your response, your grade is not contingent on whether you agree or disagree with someone else's posting, but if there was a new insight or possibility you raised in your response. This is not a forum to discuss other issues.

Please be polite and professional in your postings and responses. For Appropriate online "netiquette" see <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

Pollak Library policy for online instruction students

TITANium Review Quiz:

13 quizzes; 20 points each quiz; each 2% of total grade; total 260 points.

Each module (except for modules 7 & 15) concludes with a twenty-question, multiple choice quiz; each question is worth 1 point, for a total of 20 points for each quiz. There is a 15 minute time limit for each quiz. Do not open a quiz until you are ready to complete it. The quiz will automatically close after the time limit expires. These quizzes are open notes and open book. However, YOU must answer each question yourself without the assistance of another person. Copying another student's quiz answers is cheating; (see "policy on academic dishonesty" below). Under certain circumstances, permission will be given to a student to complete a module quiz after a due date.

If you are accidentally disconnected from the quiz page, you can re-open the quiz within the allotted time limit. If you experience a technical problem and the timer goes over 15 minutes, please send me an email and in certain cases I will reset the quiz for you, while keeping the score of your previously answered questions. Do not use a public connection that might time-out!

Email Reflection:

5 reflections; 4 points each; each 0.4% of total grade; 20 points total

As assigned on the schedule (below), send me an Email, using whatever Email address you check regularly. I will send a reply to all Email reflections and include an update on your progress. The usual length of each reflection should be between a few sentences (25 words) to a paragraph (250 words). The purpose of this Email is to: 1) provide direct interaction between you and me; 2) give you practice in writing an Email that is both personal and professional; 3) demonstrate that you can reflect upon the course material in a brief and concise manner; 4) give you an opportunity to ask any questions; 5) illustrate that you are still "out there in cyberspace," especially if you have fallen behind on the assignments; 6) allow your instructor to reply with a progress report. Your grade will not be based on your level of success for the past module(s), but on the clarity of your reflection (including grammar). Remember, this is not a text-message or Twitter posting, but an informal academic/business Email. Because your Email reflection is not contingent upon completion of any other assignments, Email reflections will not be accepted late for credit.

Here's an example:

Hi Dr. Ibrahim,

I must admit this was a very busy week for me. In addition to my usual family and work responsibilities, my car needed service. However, in the midst of it all, I'm happy to report that I was able to complete all of this week's assignments for our course. What I have found most interesting in the past modules is the wearing of hijab by many Muslim women in the United States. I must admit that this has always intrigued me. I understand from the readings that this is not considered oppressive, but rather a sign of modesty. I definitely will have to reflect on this more, especially the next time I see a woman wearing a hijab. Have a good week,
Samantha

GE Writing Requirement/Book Reviews:

150 points—Two Book Reviews (1 at 60 points and 1 at 90 points); combined 15% of total grade.

These book reviews are designed to meet the General Education writing requirement. The substance as well as the manner of organization and expression of the information and ideas will be evaluated. In other words, the content as well as the style and grammar of each book review will be graded. See "Grading Rubrics for Book Reviews" (below) and "Writing Checklist" (on TITANium). To encourage each student to advance his/her writing competence, the assessment of all book reviews will include suggestions for improvement.

Book Review 1:

In the first three weeks, each student must read the book (Elias, Jamal J. Islam. Prentice Hall Inc.: Upper Saddle River, NJ, 1999), and in the fourth week, provide a three (3) page report (typed, double spaced text, 750 words) consisting of detailed and interesting points that have been learned (refer to the page numbers). Sample reviews will be provided on TITANium.

Book Review 2:

Each student must submit a review of a book chosen on their own, but to be approved by me. The review must be five (5) pages (typed, double spaced text, 1250 words; criticism and observation included). Sample reviews will be provided on TITANium.

No outside research is required, but you must identify all other sources (including our textbooks) you use for all book reviews. *All direct quotations must be placed in quotation marks and properly referenced (in-text references). All paraphrases of key ideas must be properly referenced (in-text references). It is expected that all book reviews will contain citations.**

In quoting or paraphrasing any book or Internet source, including our textbooks, cite author and page in your text, and add a full reference (“Works Cited”) at the end of your book review (use APA or MLA for the full references at the end of your book review).

If your book review is not referenced properly (but no sentences are plagiarized word-for-word) it will be returned to you and you will have one week to resubmit the book review for a maximum grade of “C” on the book review. If some or all of your book review is plagiarized word-for-word, you will receive a zero on the assignment, without the possibility to resubmit the work and the Academic Dean will be notified; (see “Policy on Academic Dishonesty” below.)

In the following examples, in-text parenthetical references are used.

- Paraphrase Example: Though Muslims are expected to love their wives equally, `A`isha was considered Muhammad’s favorite wife (Denny, 69).
- Quotation Example: “After Khadija, `A`isha was the favored wife of Muhammad” (Denny, 69).

If you use Internet sources (not required), be sure to give the full Internet address at the end of your book review. For your in-text reference use a short name (no page number).

Quotation Example: Wicca is a “neopagan, earth-centered religion” (Robinson, Wicca: Neopagan).

Paraphrase Example: The roots of modern-day Wicca extend back to 800 BCE (Robinson, Wicca: Introduction).

Bibliography/Works Cited Example:

Robinson, Bruce. “Wicca: A Neopagan Earth-Centered Religion.” Ontario Consultants on Religious Tolerance.
<http://www.religioustolerance.org/witchcra.htm>

Robinson, Bruce. “Wicca: An Introduction.” Ontario Consultants on Religious Tolerance.
http://www.religioustolerance.org/wic_intr.htm

--Most book reviews will contain some citations (but don’t submit a book review that is simply a string of quotations).

Submission of Book Reviews:

Book Reviews must be submitted to TITANium on or before the due dates in the schedule (below). Book reviews must be uploaded to TITANium in order to be graded. Please do not Email your book review. Do not bring a paper-copy to the office. TITANium uses Turn-It-In to check book reviews for plagiarism. By using TITANium, students acknowledge that their work will be checked. A student will be able to view his/her graded book review on TITANium within one week of the due dates.

Late submissions of the book reviews will be accepted, but any book review not uploaded to TITANium by 11:55PM on the due date will be marked down ten percent, up to one week after the due date (certain health problems or emergencies may be exempt, if you notify me within 48 hours of the due date). No book reviews accepted after one week of the due date. In all cases it is the student's responsibility to possess a back-up copy (paper copy or electronic) of written work, and to keep all graded assignments, in the unlikely event that proof is necessary.

Examinations:

There are two exams; the midterm is 150 points; 15% of total grade. The final is 200 points; 20% of total grade. Both the midterm and final exams will be conducted online. The midterm exam will be available on TITANium from Friday, 10/11/13, 8:00 AM to Sunday, 10/13/13, 11:55 PM. To prepare for the midterm exam, study Workbooks 1-7.

The final exam will be available on TITANium from Friday, 12/13/13, 8:00 AM to Monday, 12/16/13, 5:00 PM. To prepare for the final exam, study Workbooks 7-15.

Each exam will consist of four sections: 1) multiple choice questions; 2) true/false questions; 3) questions requiring short answers; and 4) an essay question. Each section will have a separate time limit.

Material for both exams will come from the course Workbooks. You may use your Workbooks while you take the exam, but your time is limited. It is expected that you have memorized enough of the material to complete the exam in the time allotted. You will need to memorize information and be able to synthesize the material. The midterm exam will cover material from Workbooks 1-7. The final exam will be comprehensive insofar as it will cover material from Workbook 7 (which is a review of weeks 1-6). The final exam will also cover Workbooks 8-15. Note: no make-up exams will be given except for reason of illness or other verified emergencies.

Policy on Academic Dishonesty:

“Academic dishonesty includes such things as cheating, inventing false information or citations, plagiarism, and helping someone else commit an act of academic dishonesty” (UPS 300.021).

Cheating: “Cheating is defined as the act of obtaining or attempting to obtain credit for work by the use of any dishonest, deceptive, fraudulent, or unauthorized means. Examples of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: using notes or aides or the help of other students on tests and examinations in ways other than those expressly permitted by the instructor” (UPS 300.021). In addition:

Your TITANium usage will be tracked. Anomalies will be discussed with the student and reviewed for possible plagiarism (e.g., copying another person's quiz answers).

It is expected that YOU will answer questions in the Workbook based on your reading, and watching e-book presentations and videos. Copying from another student's Workbook is cheating. Copying another student's quiz answers is cheating.

Plagiarism: “Plagiarism is defined as the act of taking the work of another and offering it as one's own without giving credit to that source. When sources are used in a paper, acknowledgement of the original author or source must be made through appropriate references and, if directly quoted, quotation marks or indentations must be used” (UPS 300.021). Having another person write one or more of your book reviews or paragraph postings is plagiarism.

Penalties: The minimum penalty for cheating or for plagiarism will be an “F” on the assignment (zero points), without the possibility to re-do the work. In addition, the final course grade will be no higher than a “C” regardless of the final point total. Depending upon the severity of the offense, a final course grade of “F” may be assigned. In all cases the Dean of Students Office, Judicial Affairs will be notified.

Plagiarism is a serious issue. It is the student’s responsibility to be clear of the meaning of plagiarism. Examples of how to avoid plagiarism are available on TITANium. The same information is at <http://www.fullerton.edu/deanofstudents/judicial/Plagiarism.htm>

Special Needs:

During the first week of classes, inform me of any disabilities or special needs that you have that may require special arrangements (such as extra time for the quizzes and final exam). Students with disabilities need to document the disability at the Disability Support Services office in UH 101.

Emergency Procedures:

In the event of a public emergency (e.g., earthquake), please continue to check TITANium as our course assignments will continue—provided there is electricity and Internet connectivity. For more information, please see the following link. http://www.fullerton.edu/emergencypreparedness/ep_students.html

TECHNICAL COMPETENCIES

Overview:

To complete this course, you will need a computer with high speed Internet access (e.g., DSL or cable).

Minimum Hardware:

- 1.0 GHz processor (recommended 2.0 GHz or higher, e.g., AMD Athlon 64 3200; Intel Celeron D; Intel Pentium D; Intel Pentium 4; Intel Core 2; Intel i3, i5, i7)
- 1 GB RAM; (2 GB recommended)
2 GB of hard drive space or 150 MB on a removable disk.
- Modem – DSL or cable modem is required; (not dial-up).
- Computer speakers or headphones [as an alternative, all spoken words are captioned]
- Printer (strongly recommended, but not required)

Minimum Software:

- Windows 2000/XP, Vista, Windows 7, or Mac OS X 10.2 or later
- Microsoft Word, OR WordPerfect, OR word processing software compatible with Turnitin.com (save as rtf).
- Web browser: Firefox preferred; Internet Explorer 7.0 or higher, Safari and Chrome are usually compatible.
Firefox: www.mozilla.com ; Internet Explorer free download: <http://www.microsoft.com/windows/ie/>
- Adobe Reader (PDF) <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>

Additional Requirements:

- By the end of the first week of the course, you must test and resolve any technology issues.
- Your TITANium usage will be tracked. Anomalies will be discussed with the student and reviewed for possible plagiarism (e.g., copying another person's quiz answers).
- You will complete work on TITANium. Failure to demonstrate serious commitment to the course will result in the lowering of your overall grade. (See above "Participation.")
- Authentication of Student work is important in an online class. This is accomplished by requiring multiple measures of student performance, including postings, quizzes, essays, and a final exam.
- Appropriate online "netiquette." See <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>
- In the event of technical problems, contact the helpdesk or use another computer (e.g., at the library) to complete tasks on-time; Email the instructor for permission for alternate submission procedures.

Technical Help:

- View the "TITANium Moodle for Students" Tutorials by CSUF OASIS (Online Academic Strategies and Instructional Support) at <http://oasis.fullerton.edu/tutorials.aspx>
- CSUF OASIS is available to help students with TITANium from 8:00 A.M. to 2:00 A.M., Monday through Friday and will address inquiries received over a weekend upon return Monday morning. 657-278-4866; oasis@fullerton.edu; <http://oasis.fullerton.edu>
- CSUF Help Desk for technical problems: 657-278-7777; helpdesk@fullerton.edu
- If you have technical difficulties (e.g., in completing a quiz or posting a paper) do not panic (even if you miss the due date/time, don't panic). As you try to resolve the difficulty, send me an Email explaining the problem and I will make allowance and/or provide an alternate delivery method.
- If your computer crashes, it is your responsibility to find another computer to use, such as the library computers.

COMPLETE SCHEDULE

One module is assigned per week. Failure to demonstrate serious commitment to the course will result in the lowering of your overall grade. You should anticipate working three to five hours per module.
