Office Hours: To be announced; & by appt.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Internet:

This section is offered via the Internet using TITANium. There are no on-campus meetings. All assignments, including all exams, will be conducted online. Each student will need to purchase a computer program, entitled Revealing World Religions (purchasing information will be provided later) and install it on his or her computer. There is no paper textbook. You must use a computer with an Internet connection.

This course is a user-friendly, step-by-step learning endeavor. Taking an on-line course requires motivation and commitment. Taking it in the summer requires even more dedication. You must keep up with the assignments. You will participate in this class through your on-time completion of the assignments. Each week is divided into modules, with assignments due three times during each week (only two times for the first week). Failure to demonstrate serious commitment to the course will result in the lowering of your overall grade. In addition, if you fail to register meaningful progress during the first week of class, you will be dropped from the course.

This is a three-unit course, meeting for five weeks, requiring a total of 2250 minutes of instruction (plus 110 minutes for final exam), plus homework. This course is divided into 14 modules, thus $2250/14 = 161$ minutes per module, which is approximately 2 hours and 40 minutes per module (plus “homework”). You should anticipate working three to five hours per module.

If you ever have any questions or difficulties, the instructor is readily available via Email, telephone, and on-campus office. Email responses are normally returned within 12 hours (seven days a week). Please resend if you do not receive a response within 24 hours, and leave a voicemail. Be sure to read this entire syllabus, including “Technical Competencies” below (page 9).

Course Description:

Introduction to at least five religious world views from an historical and comparative perspective, with descriptive analysis of their belief system, moral code and symbolic rituals: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Sikhism. One or more sections offered online. (CSUF Catalog).

General Education:

This course fulfills GE C.2 Introduction to the Humanities. (If you wish to pursue a minor in Religious Studies, you can “double count” this course for GE and the minor—up to nine units of GE courses from one department may be used to meet minor requirements. If you are a major in Religious Studies, this class fulfills your lower division introduction to religion course, but cannot count for GE.)

Required Materials:

- Ebook: The Revealing World Religions Beta

Available at:

<http://store01.prostores.com/servlet/tstrings/the-18/world-religions-courseware-humanities/Detail;www.thinkingstrings.com>

- Course Workbook – each module, download from TITANium.

ASSESSMENT OF LEARNING

Grade Points:

NO extra credit. A total of 1000 points will be available for assessment based upon the following:

16 points— Email Reflections: 4 reflections; 4 points each; each 0.4% of total grade.

140 points— Workbook; 10 points/14 modules; each 1% of total grade.

104 points— Revealing World Religions e-book; 8 points/13 modules; each 0.8% of total grade.

90 points— Postings & Responses: 5 posts + 4 responses (10 points each); each 1% of total grade.

390 points— Review Quiz: 13 quizzes; 30 points each quiz; each 3% of total grade.

60 points— Paper (two-three pages) on a religion not covered on the syllabus; 6% of total grade.

200 points— Final Exam; 20% of total grade.

Grading Scale:

Plus-minus +/- will be used. Final grades will be calculated on the following basis:

A+	97.0-100%	970-1000 points	C+	77.0-79.9%	770-799 points
A	93.0-96.9%	940-969 points	C	73.0-76.9%	740-769 points
A-	90.0-92.9%	900-939 points	C-	70.0-72.9%	700-739 points
B+	87.0-89.9%	870-899 points	D+	67.0-69.9%	670-699 points
B	83.0-86.9%	840-869 points	D	60.0-66.9%	600-669 points (no D-)
B-	80.0-82.9%	800-839 points	F	0-59.9%	0-599 points

The grading scale is firm. “Faculty members are expected to maintain high standards regarding student achievement” (University Policy Statement 210.000, IV, C, 1, c). A grade of “C” is the “average” grade which describes what most students can reasonably accomplish. Average work includes completing all assignments and learning the class material. A grade of “B” means “above average” and requires achievement beyond normal expectations. A grade of “A” is reserved for “outstanding” work which is the mark of true excellence; such work exhibits profound comprehension of the material and creative insights. There is no extra credit.

Learning Goals:

General Education Learning Goals applied to this Course:

Below (in standard type) are the Learning Goals for GE C.2 Introduction to the Humanities (UPS 411.201, 6/20/11). After each goal is a formulation (in italics) of how the goal is addressed in this course.

- Cultivate their intellectual reasoning skills, expand their capacity for creative imagination, develop their reasonable moral sensibilities, and increase their capacity for sensitive engagement through studying great works of human imagination and reason (which are to be primarily—although not exclusively—written texts and literature).
 - To investigate worldviews/belief systems and their expression in scripture, ritual, art forms and ethical standards—ancient and powerful ways of being human;
 - To clarify the distinctions between the comparative study of religion and the study of other humanities disciplines by focusing on religious traditions in and of themselves, rather than as aspects of history, philosophy, literature or one of the social sciences.
 - To study the major texts, key figures, significant traditions and important themes in the main religions of our world that have so profoundly influenced every society that they have encountered.
 - To analyze key religious texts from the Western religious traditions, including selections from the Hebrew and Christian scriptures, and the Qur’an. Non-Western texts include passages from the Vedic Upanishads, the Bhagavad-Gita, as well as the Pali and Mahayana canons of Buddhism.
- Understand how the humanities have contributed to the development of culture, including the comparative study of the humanities in diverse cultures.
 - To understand the historical and cultural aspects of Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, as they are practiced throughout the world.
 - To acknowledge the unique challenges faced by Hindus, Buddhists, and Muslims in adapting their religions to the American situation.
 - To possess a familiarity with certain new religious movements and the perspective of secular humanism.

- To identify how religion is a central component of culture. In many societies, in fact, religion and culture are nearly inseparable, so that the humanistic and academic study of a religious tradition is a window into the evolution of a culture.
- To gain a general awareness of how religious presuppositions--for good and bad--influence the actions and ideas of individuals and the general society.
- Understand how the humanities have sought to provide answers to complex problems facing humanity, including the relationship of the self to culture and the natural world, the nature of moral and legal obligations, and the meaning and purpose of human existence.
 - To study a principal humanistic component in the lives of at least four-fifths of the earth's inhabitants, namely, their religious traditions.
 - The "Humanities" are so named because they deal with the study of the essential components of being human: the quest for meaning and fulfillment gained through the encounter with art and literature, and the study of history, religion, and philosophy. To study religion academically is to encounter an important aspect of what it means to be human.
 - To understand and appreciate why religious faith provides meaning and a system of values to billions of people worldwide.
 - To appreciate the values, experiences, and meanings held by others and in one's own life.
 - To understand the benefits and challenges of a pluralistic approach to the religious views of others.

Department of Comparative Religion Learning Goals & Outcomes applied to this Course:

- Learning Goal: Students possess the ability to perform research and interpret materials related to the study of religion.
 - Outcome 1: Students can analyze written materials related to the study of religion.
 - Outcome 2: Students have acquired information literacy in the study of religion.
- Learning Goal: Students can effectively communicate in written and spoken mediums.
 - Outcome 3: Students are able to write well-organized critical and analytical research papers related to the study of religion.
 - Outcome 4 Students are able to speak clearly and effectively using relevant and adequate supporting evidence. Not applied to this course.
- Learning Goal: Students can demonstrate an understanding of the beliefs, rituals, texts, and figures related to a variety of religious traditions.
 - Outcome 5: Students can describe the basic teachings and practices of major religious traditions and can compare and contrast the principal similarities and differences between them.
 - Outcome 6: Students are able to identify the history and development of specific religions and their contemporary relevance.
 - Outcome 7 Students can compare key theories and theorists in the study of religion. Not applied to this course.
 - Outcome 8: Students can interpret key thinkers and figures within religious traditions.

Participation & Weekly Assignments:

Taking an on-line course requires motivation and commitment. Taking it in the summer requires even more dedication and time. You must constantly keep up with the assignments. You will participate in this class through your on-time completion of assignments. In order to keep up with the assignments, each week is divided into modules, with assignments due three times during each week (only two times for the first week). Failure to demonstrate serious commitment to the course will result in the lowering of your overall grade. In addition, if you fail to register meaningful progress during the first week of class, you will be dropped from the course.

Workbook:

10 points/14 modules; each 1% of total grade; total 140 points.

From TITANIum, download each "Workbook." The Workbook provides step-by-step instructions of all assignments for each module and questions for you to answer. You will use these pages to answer the module quiz and study for the final exam. Completing the Workbook is essential to understanding exam material. It is expected that YOU will answer questions in the Workbook based on your reading, and watching the lectures and videos. Copying from another student's Workbook is cheating; (see "policy on academic dishonesty" below). At the end of each week you will upload your completed Workbook on TITANium. An overall grade for a module will be assigned to your Workbook based on completion and the overall correctness of your answers. Please note that not all incorrect answers will be marked. It is your responsibility to ask for help if you cannot answer a specific question. Workbooks uploaded after a due date will be accepted for reduced credit (two points deduction if submitted on-or-before the due date of the next module; four points deduction if submitted on-or-before the due date of two modules later; not accepted after the due date of two subsequent modules). The Workbook for module 13 will not be accepted after the due date of module 14; the Workbook for module 14 will not be accepted late.

Table 1 Workbook Rubrics

Criteria	A+	A-	B+	B-	C	D	F
Completion	All questions are thoroughly answered. 5.0	All questions are answered, and most are answered thoroughly. 4.5	All questions are answered, and many are answered thoroughly. 4.4	All but one or two questions are answered, and many are answered thoroughly. 4.0	All but three or four questions are answered, and some are answered thoroughly. 3.7	Some questions are answered, and many answers are brief. 3.2	Less than half of the questions are answered. 0
Accuracy	All answers are perfectly accurate. 5.0	All answers are accurate, but some lack precision. 4.5	Almost all answers are accurate, but some lack precision. 4.4	Almost all answers are accurate, but many lack precision. 4.0	Most answers are accurate, but many lack precision. 3.7	Some answers are accurate, and many lack precision. 3.2	Most of the answers are incorrect. 0

TITANium Discussion Postings & Replies:

5 postings + 4 responses (10 points each); each 1% of total grade; total 90 points. You will be grouped with approximately five other students in a TITANium group. For assigned modules you will add a post on TITANium to the discussion question. Also, each member will add one response to another person's posting for four specific modules. Postings and responses added after a due date will be accepted for reduced credit (2 point deduction), if submitted on-or-before the due date of the next module. Your postings and responses will be graded upon the following:

Table 2 Posting Rubrics

Criteria	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Below Expectations
Focused on topic & Insightful	Clear indication that the posting is focused on the question/prompt and that the writer has developed an interpretation. 6.0	The posting responds to the question/prompt with limited insight. 5.0	Posting does not clearly relate to the question/prompt. Makes short or irrelevant remarks. 0
Organization of ideas	There is a sense in the posting that ideas lead to each other and that there are connections being made. 2.0	Some ideas are connected, but others appear tangential or disconnected. Needs some editing. 1.5	There is a lack of organization of ideas or insight. Posting appears hasty. 0
Grammar/mechanics	There are few (if any) spelling or grammar errors. 2.0	A few (to some) errors in spelling and/or grammar in posting. 1.5	Poor spelling and grammar in much of the posting. 0

Table 3 Response Rubrics

Criteria	Exceeds/Meets Expectations	Below Expectations
Critical thinking evident in responses	The response is not just a summary but an attempt by the respondent to push toward a particular meaning. 4.0	The response mostly summarizes the original posting without adding particular insight. 0-2.0
Correlation of response to question/prompt and/or posting	The response refers consistently to the question/prompt and/or to particular ideas from a posting that have made an impression. 2.0	The response is inconsistent in its focus on the question/prompt (or overall focus). 0-1.5
Thoughtfulness in interactions	Evidence of college level thinking and professional response. 2.0	Possible "gut response" without reflection and/or abrupt tone. 0-1.5
Grammar/mechanics	There are few (if any) spelling or grammar errors. 2.0	Errors in spelling and/or grammar in response. 0-1.5

For your response, your grade is not contingent on whether you agree or disagree with someone else's posting, but if there was a new insight or possibility you raised in your response. This is not a forum to discuss other issues. Please be polite and professional in your postings and responses. For Appropriate online "netiquette." See <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

View Lectures and Answer Questions:

On TITANium, watch the lecture for each module (text and audio [closed captioned]) by Dr. Paul Levesque and answer the questions on the Workbook.

View Videos and Answer Questions:

On TITANium, watch the video(s) for each module [closed captioned] and answer the questions on the Workbook.

Revealing World Religions E-Book:

4 points for 13 modules; each 0.8% of total grade; total 104points.

Read the assigned sections for the module in the e-book Revealing World Religions. At the end of each section of Revealing World Religions, you will complete a number of electronic exercises while the progress report is being updated and sent to Dr. Ibrahim in real time as you work (no more “Send Progress Report” button). You must read the assigned segments of the e-book. If you wish, as an additional study tool, you can download the audio of the e-book to your iPod or computer using QuickTime or iTunes at <http://thinkingstrings.com/revealing-world-religions-pc.php>. Progress reports received after a due date will be accepted for credit if submitted on-or-before the due date of the next module.

TITANium Review Quiz:

13 quizzes; 30 points each quiz; each 3% of total grade; total 390 points.

Each module (except for module 14) concludes with a twenty-question, multiple choice quiz; each question is worth 1.5 points, for a total of 30 points for each quiz. There is a 20 minute time limit for each quiz. Do not open a quiz until you are ready to complete it. The quiz will automatically close after the time limit expires. These quizzes are open notes and open e-books. However, YOU must answer each question yourself without the assistance of another person. Copying another student’s quiz answers is cheating; (see “policy on academic dishonesty” below). Many of the questions are directly from the “Assistance Palate” on Revealing World Religions. You are encouraged to practice answering the questions on the e-book before opening the Quiz. Note: The Assistance Palate has questions that are not covered on the Workbook; only material covered on the Workbook will appear on the quizzes and midterm and final exams. Under certain circumstances, permission will be given to a student to complete a module quiz after a due date.

If you are accidentally disconnected from the quiz page, you can re-open the quiz within the allotted time limit. If you experience a technical problem and the timer goes over 20 minutes, please send me an email and in certain cases I will allow you to make up points via essay questions. Do not use a public connection that might time-out!

Email Reflection:

4 reflections; 4 points each; each 0.4% of total grade; total 16pts.

As assigned on the schedule (below), send me, Dr. Ibrahim, an Email, using whatever Email address you check regularly. Dr. Ibrahim will send a reply to all Email reflections and include an update on your progress. The usual length of each reflection should be between a few sentences (25 words) to a paragraph (250 words). The purpose of this Email is to: 1) provide direct interaction between you and the professor; 2) give you practice in writing an Email that is both personal and professional; 3) demonstrate that you can reflect upon the course material in a brief and concise manner; 4) give you an opportunity to ask any questions; 5) illustrate that you are still “out there in cyberspace,” especially if you have fallen behind on the assignments; 6) allow Dr. Ibrahim to reply with a progress report. Your grade will not be based on your level of success for the past module(s), but on the clarity of your reflection (including grammar). Remember, this is not a text-message or Twitter posting, but an informal academic/business Email. Because your Email reflection is not contingent upon completion of any other weekly assignments, Email reflections will not be accepted late for credit. Here’s an example:

Hi Dr. Ibrahim,

I must admit this was a very busy few days for me. In addition to my usual family and work responsibilities, my car needed service. However, in the midst of it all, I’m happy to report that I was able to complete all of the assignments for our course. What I have found most interesting from the past modules is the fact that Buddhists don’t believe in a personal creator God. Buddhists don’t need to believe in a God to find meaning and purpose in their lives and act with compassion to all creatures. I think many people might find this hard to do, but I understand that Buddhists are very practical and find meaning in everyday activities. They also act with compassion, not because it is a commandment from above, but because any act of kindness is an end in itself. Have a good week,
Hannah

GE Writing Requirement/Synthesis Paper:

The paper is worth 60 points; 6% of total grade and is due on Monday 6/23/14 at 11:55 PM.

One paper of two-three typed pages will be required over the course of the semester; (double spaced, or 1.5 spacing; no fancy fonts; no cover page; put your name in upper left corner—first name first; put topic title in center, e.g., “Wicca”).

This paper is designed to meet the General Education writing requirement. The substance as well as the manner of organization and expression of the information and ideas will be evaluated. In other words, the content as well as the style and grammar of the paper will be graded. See “Grading Rubrics for Paper” (below) and “Writing Checklist” (on TITANium). To encourage each student to advance his/her writing competence, the assessment of all papers will include suggestions for improvement on papers for future courses.

Topic:

Explain the history, beliefs, and practices of one religion not covered in this course, including any New Religious Movement; (choose from the below lists, or double check your topic with Dr. Ibrahim).

Sources:

a) If you write on Taoism, Confucianism, or Shinto, you may use our course e-book as your only source.

b) If you write on a New Religious Movement, such as Wicca, Scientology, Baha’i, Rastafarianism, Theosophy, Jehovah’s Witnesses, or Cao Dai, you must use at least three sources for your paper; you may use three Internet sites, or three books, or any combination of three Internet and book sources. For Internet sites, be sure that the sites are academic or produced as an official site for the religion. For general academic sites on other religions, use the links on TITANium under “External Links.” For information on how to evaluate a web site, go to http://www.library.fullerton.edu/content/IAndIsUnit/Instruction/rhdi_evaluatewebresources.htm.

Do not use Internet sites that are against the religious movement you have chosen.

You must identify all sources you use for your paper. All direct quotations must be placed in quotation marks and properly referenced (in-text references or footnotes). All paraphrases of key ideas must be properly referenced (in-text references or footnotes). It is expected that all papers will contain citations. Also, you must provide a Works Cited page or Bibliography at the end of your paper to all sources you use. *****

If your paper is not referenced properly (but no sentences are plagiarized word-for-word) it will be returned to you and you will have until the day of the final exam to resubmit the paper for a maximum grade of “C” on the paper. If some or all of your paper is plagiarized word-for-word, you will receive a zero on the assignment, without the possibility to resubmit the work and the Academic Dean will be notified; (see “Policy on Academic Dishonesty” below.)

In the following examples, in-text parenthetical references are used; you can use footnotes or endnotes instead.

E-TEXTBOOK CITATION

If you are quoting or paraphrasing our e-textbook, I recommended citing the author’s name, the section title, and page number. Also provide a bibliographical reference at the end of your paper.

Paraphrase Example: As he grew, Confucius received the educational training accorded to children of noble status (Eller, Life of Confucius, 2).

Quotation Example: “Confucius was given an education proper to the family’s noble heritage” (Eller, Life of Confucius, 2).

Bibliography Example: Eller, Cynthia. Revealing World Religions 4.2 E-book. Orange, NJ: Thinking Strings, 2013.

BOOK CITATION

If you are quoting or paraphrasing a book, cite author and page in your text, and provide a full reference at the end of your paper.

Paraphrase Example: Ancient Chinese beliefs influenced the development of Confucianism (Molloy, 209).

Quotation Example: "Early Chinese belief was a blend of several elements" (Molloy, 209).

Bibliography Example: Molloy, Michael. Experiencing the World's Religions. Boston: McGraw-Hill, third edition, 2005.

INTERNET CITATION

If you use Internet sources, be sure to give the full Internet address at the end of your paper. For your in-text reference use a short name (no page number).

Quotation Example: Wicca is a "neopagan, earth-centered religion" (Robinson, Wicca: Neopagan).

Paraphrase Example: The roots of modern-day Wicca extend back to 800 BCE (Robinson, Wicca: Introduction).

Bibliography Example:

Robinson, Bruce. "Wicca: A Neopagan Earth-Centered Religion." Ontario Consultants on Religious Tolerance. <http://www.religioustolerance.org/witchcra.htm>

Robinson, Bruce. "Wicca: An Introduction." Ontario Consultants on Religious Tolerance. http://www.religioustolerance.org/wic_intr.htm

--Even if you write your paper using information you learned in the past, you must cite your sources. For example, if you write a paper on Rastafarianism and you remember learning that Rastafarians developed Reggae music, you must find and cite a source to substantiate this fact.

--Most papers will contain many citations (but don't submit a paper that is simply a string of quotations).

Submission of Paper:

Your paper must be uploaded to TITANium by 11:55 PM on the due date: Monday (6/23/14). Papers must be uploaded to TITANium in order to be graded. Please do not Email your paper. Do not bring a paper-copy to the office. TITANium uses Turn-It-In to check papers for plagiarism. By using TITANium, students acknowledge that their work will be checked. A student will be able to view his/her graded paper on TITANium before the date of the final exam.

Late submissions of the paper will be accepted, but any paper not uploaded to TITANium by 11:55PM on the due date will be marked down ten percent, up to 24 hours after the due date (certain health problems or emergencies may be exempt, if you notify me within 24 hours of the due date). All papers turned in later than 24 hours after the due date will be marked down twenty percent. Late papers must be uploaded no later than Thursday, July 3, 2014. No papers accepted after this date. In all cases it is the student's responsibility to possess a back-up copy (paper copy or electronic) of written work, and to keep all graded assignments, in the unlikely event that proof is necessary.

Final Examination:

There is a final exam worth 200 points; 20% of total grade. (No midterm exam). As with all course assignments, the final exam will be conducted online. The final exam will be available on TITANium from Wednesday, 7/2/14, 8:00 AM to Thursday, 7/3/14, 11:55 PM. To prepare for the final exam, study Workbooks 1-14. (NOTE: no make-up exams will be given except for reason of illness or other verified emergencies).

The exam will consist of four sections: 1) multiple choice questions; 2) true/false questions; 3) questions requiring short answers; and 4) an essay question. Each section will have a separate time limit.

Material for the final exam will come from the course Workbooks. You may use your Workbooks while you take the exam, but your time is limited. It is expected that you have memorized enough of the material to complete the exam in the time allotted. You will need to memorize information and be able to synthesize the material. The final exam will be comprehensive, covering material from Workbooks 1-14.

Policy on Academic Dishonesty:

“Academic dishonesty includes such things as cheating, inventing false information or citations, plagiarism, and helping someone else commit an act of academic dishonesty” (UPS 300.021).

<http://www.fullerton.edu/senate/documents/PDF/300/UPS300-021.pdf>

Cheating: “Cheating is defined as the act of obtaining or attempting to obtain credit for work by the use of any dishonest, deceptive, fraudulent, or unauthorized means. Examples of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: using notes or aides or the help of other students on tests and examinations in ways other than those expressly permitted by the instructor” (UPS 300.021). In addition:

Your TITANium usage will be tracked. Anomalies will be discussed with the student and reviewed for possible plagiarism (e.g., copying another person’s quiz answers).

It is expected that YOU will answer questions in the Workbook based on your reading, and watching e-book presentations and videos. Copying from another student’s Workbook is cheating. Copying another student’s quiz answers is cheating.

Plagiarism: “Plagiarism is defined as the act of taking the work of another and offering it as one’s own without giving credit to that source. When sources are used in a paper, acknowledgement of the original author or source must be made through appropriate references and, if directly quoted, quotation marks or indentations must be used” (UPS 300.021). Having another person write one or more of your papers or paragraph postings is plagiarism.

Penalties: The minimum penalty for cheating or for plagiarism will be an “F” on the assignment (zero points), without the possibility to re-do the work. In addition, the final course grade will be no higher than a “C” regardless of the final point total. Depending upon the severity of the offense, a final course grade of “F” may be assigned. In all cases the Dean of Students Office, Judicial Affairs will be notified.

Plagiarism is a serious issue. It is the student’s responsibility to be clear of the meaning of plagiarism. Examples of how to avoid plagiarism are available on TITANium. The same information is at

<http://www.fullerton.edu/deanofstudents/judicial/Academic%20Integrity%20Resources.asp>

Special Needs:

During the first week of classes, inform me of any disabilities or special needs that you have that may require special arrangements. Students with disabilities need to document the disability at the

Disability Support Services office in UH 101. <http://www.fullerton.edu/DSS/>

Emergency Procedures:

In the event of a public emergency (e.g., earthquake), please continue to check TITANium as our course work will continue—provided there is electricity and Internet connectivity. For more information, please see the following link. <http://prepare.fullerton.edu/>

TECHNICAL COMPETENCIES

Overview:

To complete this course, you will need a computer with Internet access. Internet access is necessary to:

1. View various sites and utilize TITANium for quizzes, postings, upload papers, etc.
2. View audio/visual Lectures and Videos hosted on YouTube
3. Do some exercises on the Revealing World Religions e-book and the progress reports are updated and sent to Dr. Ibrahim in real time.

Minimum Hardware:

- 1.0 GHz processor (recommended 2.0 GHz or higher, e.g., AMD Athlon 64 3200; Intel Celeron D; Intel Pentium D; Intel Pentium 4; Intel Core 2, Intel i3, i5, i7)
- 1 GB RAM (2 GB recommended)
- 2 GB of hard drive space or 150 MB on a removable disk
- DVD drive
- Modem – DSL or cable modem is required; (not dial-up).
- Monitor capable of 1024x768 resolution
- Computer speakers or headphones [as an alternative, all spoken words are captioned]
- Printer (strongly recommended, but not required)

Minimum Software:

- Windows 2000/XP, Vista, Windows 7, or Mac OS X 10.2 or later
- Microsoft Word, OR WordPerfect, OR word processing software compatible with Turnitin.com (save as rtf).
- Web browser: Firefox preferred; Internet Explorer 8.0 or higher, Safari and Chrome are usually compatible.
Firefox: www.mozilla.com ; Internet Explorer free download: <http://www.microsoft.com/windows/ie/>
- Adobe Reader (PDF) <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>

Additional Requirements:

- By the end of the first week of the course, you must test and resolve any technology issues, e.g., install the Revealing World Religions e-book, download software to view lectures and videos, and navigate TITANium.
- Your TITANium usage will be tracked. Anomalies will be discussed with the student and reviewed for possible plagiarism (e.g., copying another person's quiz answers).
- You will complete work on TITANium and do some exercises on the Revealing World Religions e-book (progress report will be updated and sent in real time to Dr. Ibrahim). Failure to demonstrate serious commitment to the course will result in the lowering of your overall grade. (See above "Participation.")
- Authentication of Student work is important in an online class. This is accomplished by requiring multiple measures of student performance, including postings, quizzes, a paper, and final exam.
- Appropriate online "netiquette." See <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>
- In the event of technical problems, contact the helpdesk or use another computer (e.g., at the library) to complete tasks on-time; Email the instructor for permission for alternate submission procedures.

Technical Help:

- As you Logon to TITANium, you will find a resource page.
- View the "TITANium Moodle for Students" Tutorials by CSUF OASIS (Online Academic Strategies and Instructional Support) at <http://oasis.fullerton.edu/tutorials.aspx>
- CSUF OASIS is available to help students with TITANium from 8:00 A.M. to 2:00 A.M., Monday through Friday and will address inquiries received over a weekend upon return Monday morning. 657-278-4866; oasis@fullerton.edu; <http://oasis.fullerton.edu>
- CSUF Help Desk for technical problems: 657-278-7777; helpdesk@fullerton.edu
- If you have technical difficulties (e.g., in completing a quiz or posting a paper) do not panic (even if you miss the due date/time, don't panic). As you try to resolve the difficulty, send me an Email explaining the problem and I will make allowance and/or provide an alternate delivery method.
- If your computer crashes, it is your responsibility to find another computer to use, such as the library computers.

COMPLETE SCHEDULE

In order to keep up with the assignments, each week is divided into modules, with assignments due three times during each week (only two times for the first week). Failure to demonstrate serious commitment to the course will result in the lowering of your overall grade.
